How Do We Use The Information That We Collect?

Financial Information

Features exist on the Site that enable Site users to register for events and training workshops online using their credit/debit card, and therefore, we may request that a user supply his or her credit card number and expiration date of such credit card (“Financial Information”). The Financial Information collected by us during these online transactions is used solely by us and is not shared with outside parties except for the purposes of finalizing the transaction. Financial Information is not used for any other purpose whatsoever. Insight Partners Consulting is committed to protecting the security of your Financial Information and has in place various commercially reasonable security measures to safeguard this information from unauthorized access, use, and/or disclosure, including encrypting such Financial Information while in electronic transmission. Once a transaction is completed, Insight Partners Consulting purges the Financial Information used to facilitate or consummate the transaction.

In addition to the uses mentioned or described above, or otherwise described in our Terms and Conditions, we may use the information that we collect from or about you for certain purposes that are relevant to our relationship with you, such as: to provide training workshops if you register for such workshops; to analyze and improve the content, features, materials and opportunities that we make available on the Site or through other communications with you; to notify you of changes made to the Site or new opportunities made available on or through the Site or from Insight Partners Consulting; to evaluate your needs and customize the Site content delivered to you according to those needs; and for other legitimate and lawful business purposes.

With Whom Do We Share Information That We Collect?

In addition to the uses mentioned or described above, or otherwise described in our Terms and Conditions, in the course of conducting our business, we may transfer the Collected Information about you or your company to our offices throughout the world.

We may disclose information about you if we become subject to a subpoena or court order, or if we are otherwise legally required to disclose information. We may also use and disclose information about you to establish or exercise our legal rights, to enforce the Terms and Conditions, to assert and defend against legal claims, or if we believe such disclosure is necessary to investigate, prevent, or take other action regarding actual or suspected illegal or fraudulent activities or potential threats to the physical safety or well-being of any person.

As Insight Partners Consulting continues to grow and develop, it is possible that its corporate structure might change or that it might merge or otherwise combine with, or that it or portions of its business might be acquired by, another company. In any such transactions, customer information will most likely be, and should be expected to be, one of the transferred business assets.

What Choices Do You Have?

You may elect at any time to opt-out of receiving emails and newsletters that we may periodically post, publish or distribute. Except for information collected by automated means, when corresponding with Insight Partners Consulting or our representatives, or when making a request for information or otherwise interacting with Insight Partners Consulting through the Site, you choose what information to supply, what questions to pose and comments to make, whether you wish to receive further information, and by what method of communication such information should be delivered. Please take care to share only such information as is needed or that you believe is appropriate.

How Do We Protect Information Collected About You?

Insight Partners Consulting takes commercially reasonable measures to secure and protect information transmitted via or stored on the Site. You should read that site's privacy policies to understand how personal information that is collected about you is used and protected.
